

第七届中国杭州 聚氨酯·氨纶产业链论坛(2014)

7th China Hangzhou Polyurethane & Spandex Industry Forum(2014)

July 3-4, 2014

New Century Grand Hotel
Hangzhou, China

Foreword

China's economy has been growing steadily in recent years, but meanwhile undergoing transition. Real estate and automotive industries both are in face of adjustment, and polyurethane industry may be impacted, though the industry has developed robustly in Asian-Pacific region, especially in China.

Polyurethane industry developed late in China but now is as strong as in Europe and North America, and remains promising in the future. China along with the whole Asian-Pacific region, become the industry focus with great potential demand. In the future, what are the new growing opportunities?

As global spandex production and consumption base, China has maintained fast development with compound demand growth at around 12% in recent years. What are the driving forces for the fast growth?

We gathered firstly in Hangzhou in 2002 to discuss spandex market. Every two years we gather together, reviewing the industry development and looking forward to the future. Now in face of fast development and new adjustment of spandex industry, we invite you to join us again in 2014.

Zhejiang Huarui Information Consulting Co, Ltd. (CCFGroup) will hold 7th China Hangzhou Polyurethane & Spandex Industry Forum during July 3-4, 2014 in Hangzhou. With wide concerns and supports, we have held 6 industry forums successfully. As one of the most influential industry meetings, the forum will continue to present the deepest research and the forefront viewpoint.
